Dr Jemima Bunn

RECRUIT & REBUILD FOR 2021

Join ABODA Vic, Yamaha Music Australia and Dr Jemima Bunn for a session to enliven your Music Recruitment for 2021. Discussion will include practical approaches to recruitment in the COVID world, in line with the current restrictions. Bring along your ideas to share and a drink for our final Digital Drinks for 2020!

Dr Jemima Bunn has been active in the Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association (ABODA) over several years, serving as a committee member, president and vice president at state and national levels. In 2006, she received an ABODA Victoria Excellence Award and in 2018 a National Citation of Excellence for her work in music education.

For the last several years, Jemima has worked with Brolga Music Publishing Company in Melbourne, Australia. She also currently works as a casual academic in music education at Deakin University, preparing pre-service teachers with knowledge and understanding of pedagogical approaches in general music across middle and senior years, instrumental pedagogy, conducting and composition.

In the past Jemima Bunn has directed many active classroom and instrumental music programs, notably, Blackburn High School, Camberwell High School, Ivanhoe Grammar, Glen Waverley Secondary College and has worked as an Instrumental Music Coordinator at the Eastern Metropolitan Region. She was honoured to conduct the Blackburn High School Symphonic Band at the Midwest Clinic 2017.
